BELL RINGING*CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

In the name of the Father,
and of the ✝ Son,
and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence is kept for reflection.

Most merciful God,

we confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name.

Amen.

In the mercy of almighty God, Jesus Christ was given to die for us, and for his sake God forgives us all our sins. As a called and ordained minister of the church of Christ, and by his authority, I therefore declare to you the entire forgiveness of all your sins, in the name of the Father, and of the ✝ Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen

CHILDREN'S MESSAGE

FIRST READING: Lamentations 3:22-33

<sup>22</sup>The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases,
his mercies never come to an end;

<sup>23</sup>they are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness.

<sup>24</sup>“The Lord is my portion,” says my soul,
“therefore I will hope in him.”

<sup>25</sup>The Lord is good to those who wait for him,
to the soul that seeks him.

<sup>26</sup>It is good that one should wait quietly
for the salvation of the Lord.

<sup>27</sup>It is good for one to bear the yoke in youth,

<sup>28</sup>to sit alone in silence when the Lord has imposed it,

<sup>29</sup>to put one's mouth to the dust
(there may yet be hope),

<sup>30</sup>to give one's cheek to the smiter,
and be filled with insults.

<sup>31</sup>For the Lord will not reject forever.

<sup>32</sup>Although he causes grief, he will have compassion
according to the abundance of his steadfast love;

<sup>33</sup>for he does not willingly afflict or grieve anyone.

This is the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God!

PSALM 30 (Read Responsively)

<sup>1</sup>I will exalt you, O Lord, because you have lifted me up and have not let my enemies triumph over me.

<sup>2</sup>O Lord my God, I cried out to you,
and you restored me to health.

<sup>3</sup>You brought me up, O Lord, from the dead;
you restored my life as I was going down to the grave.

<sup>4</sup>Sing praise to the Lord, all you faithful;
give thanks in holy remembrance.

<sup>5</sup>God's wrath is short; God's favor lasts a lifetime.

Weeping spends the night, but joy comes in the morning.

<sup>6</sup>While I felt secure, I said,

"I shall never be disturbed.

<sup>7</sup>You, Lord, with your favor, made me as strong as the mountains."

Then you hid your face, and I was filled with fear.

<sup>8</sup>I cried to you, O Lord;

I pleaded with my Lord, saying,

<sup>9</sup>"What profit is there in my blood, if I go down to the pit?
Will the dust praise you or declare your faithfulness?"

<sup>10</sup>Hear, O Lord, and have mercy upon me;

O Lord, be my helper."

<sup>11</sup>You have turned my wailing into dancing;

you have put off my sackcloth and clothed me with joy.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore my heart sings to you without ceasing;

O Lord my God, I will give you thanks forever.

SECOND READING: 2 Corinthians 8:7-15

<sup>7</sup>Now as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you—so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking.

<sup>8</sup>I do not say this as a command, but I am testing the genuineness of your love against the earnestness of others. <sup>9</sup>For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. <sup>10</sup>And in this matter I am giving my advice: it is appropriate for you who began last year not only to do something but even to desire to do something—<sup>11</sup>now finish doing it, so that your eagerness may be matched by completing it according to your means. <sup>12</sup>For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has—not according to what one does not have. <sup>13</sup>I do not mean that there should be relief for others and pressure on you, but it is a question of a fair balance between <sup>14</sup>your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may be for your need, in order that there may be a fair balance.

<sup>15</sup>As it is written,

“The one who had much did not have too much,
and the one who had little did not have too little.”

This is the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God!

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Al - le - lu - ia. Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of e - ter - nal life. Al - le - lu - ia.
Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia. Al - le - lu - ia.
Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

GOSPEL: Mark 5:21-43

The holy gospel according to Mark, the 5th chapter.

Glory to you, O Lord.

<sup>21</sup>When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered around him; and he was by the sea. <sup>22</sup>Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet <sup>23</sup>and begged him repeatedly, “My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live.” <sup>24</sup>So he went with him.

And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. <sup>25</sup>Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years. <sup>26</sup>She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse. <sup>27</sup>She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, <sup>28</sup>for she said, “If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well.”

<sup>29</sup>Immediately her hemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. <sup>30</sup>Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, "Who touched my clothes?" <sup>31</sup>And his disciples said to him, "You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, 'Who touched me?'" <sup>32</sup>He looked all around to see who had done it. <sup>33</sup>But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. <sup>34</sup>He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease."

<sup>35</sup>While he was still speaking, some people came from the leader's house to say, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?" <sup>36</sup>But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue, "Do not fear, only believe." <sup>37</sup>He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. <sup>38</sup>When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue, he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. <sup>39</sup>When he had entered, he said to them, "Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping." <sup>40</sup>And they laughed at him. Then he put them all outside, and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was. <sup>41</sup>He took her by the hand and said to her, "Talitha cum," which means, "Little girl, get up!" <sup>42</sup>And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age). At this they were overcome with amazement. <sup>43</sup>He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

This is the Holy Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood,
shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

LORD'S PRAYER

Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit let us pray as our Lord taught us:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, forever and ever. Amen

Jane Brown

Proverbs 31:30b, “But a woman who reverently and worshipfully fears (is in awe of) the Lord, she shall be praised.” Jane Brown is such a woman who leans on and knows Jesus is with her. Jesus is her rock and hiding place, her Lord and savior.

We realize life is challenging at certain times and seasons. Some of Jane’s generation were taught that faith in God was personal and not to be talked about. If you saw her at church, she would have smiled, but probably would not have talked a lot, because she is also an introvert. But fortunately, today in her 100th year of life, she freely speaks and gives full credit to Jesus, who give her the strength for every day. His mercies are new every morning and His faithfulness at night.

The Holy Spirit’s gifts of perseverance and self-control are also clearly shown thru her. Jane is also a woman who has been there for friends and family. She is an inspiration to those who know her best and have the privilege of calling her Mom.

Barb Graham

Barb is actively involved in many groups at St. Peter’s. She attends worship weekly and is a member of the Fellowship Committee, WELCA, Bible Study (online), and volunteers for Manna Night children’s ministry and helps with funeral dinners. Her favorite book of the Bible is Luke. Barb’s favorite Bible verse is from 1 Corinthians 13, “Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth.”

Barb joined St. Peter’s after she married Harold. Both of their children were baptized and confirmed at St. Peter’s. Her favorite thing about St. Peter’s is how friendly and welcoming everyone has always been.

Norma Iman

Norma Iman married Leland at St. Peter's on December 11, 1945. Her parents were members of St. Peter's as well. While at St. Peter's Norma and Leland attended adult Sunday school, she participated in the choir, and attended church weekly. Every Christmas she has a gift bag of candy for children who visit to sing Christmas carols.

Lucille Wingard

Lucille Annetta Peters was born in Evans City on February 11, of 1930, to Charles and Mabel Wahl Peters and was baptized that same year at St. Peter's Lutheran Church by Reverend Barnett. The current baptismal font was donated in part by her great grandfather, Augustus Wahl.

The family attended Sunday School regularly, and as a teenager Lucille attended weekly Sunday evening Luther League meetings. Reverend Shaulis took Lucille and another girl to Camp Nawakwa near Gettysburg for a week of camping during their teenage years.

In high school she met and dated Paul Wingard, whom she married on June 26, 1951, with the Reverend Shaulis officiating. Lucille's Church activities included playing the piano each week for the primary department and assisted in teaching the children in first, second, and third grades. When the classes were reorganized she and Paul attended the VTC (Victory Through Christ) adult class.

She was also a member of the Ladies Aide Society, the Mary's circle, a council member, a financial secretary, and served on the 150th Church Anniversary Committee in 1999 with Agnes Watson.

Although Lucille is not able to attend weekly Church services in person she is able to watch the service online and she is able to attend weekly Bible study online.

Margaret Clawson

Margaret Clawson recently turned 90! She moved to Evans City in 1955 after her marriage to Kenneth Clawson. She lifted her letter from St. Mark's Lutheran Church in Butler to become a member of St. Peter's Lutheran.

Margaret was very active in the church. She attended adult Sunday school classes, was a member of Mary Circle, and was a co-chairperson of the 125th Anniversary celebration and former member of the St. Peter's choir. She admits she cannot sing, but participated to be with Ken.

Margaret and her family have been lifelong members and she has seen baptisms, confirmations, first communions, weddings, and funerals.

A story of St. Peter's that Margaret likes to tell occurred when she was in Mary's Circle. They decided to do a mission project of knitting bandages for the lepers. For those of you who know Margaret very well she cannot do anything crafty like knitting but she wanted to try to help anyways. She was taught how to knit and worked diligently on the bandages. She lost a knitting needle and did not realize you had to replace it with a needle of the same size. Margaret brought her bandages to the church to donate. When the real knitters of St. Peter's saw her bandages, they were appalled! Uneven edges and large holes from slipped stitches made the bandages unacceptable for even the lepers.

Margaret has a strong love for our small community church and its members. She often has said that her faith in Christ has come from the walls of St. Peter's.

Special thank you to the Anniversary Committee for organizing the reception today honoring our great cloud of witnesses who have acquired valuable years of wisdom. Also, thank you to all those listed for how your lives tell the story of God's love.
